TPS holders and Parolees under the Processes for Cubans, Haitians, Nicaraguans, and Venezuelans

WHO ARE WE

- City on a Hill Legal Ministry is a non-denominational Christian nonprofit organization devoted to reflecting God’s love and compassionate heart for the foreigner.
- We make it our aim to reflect this love in tangible ways by serving the immigrant community of the Miami metropolitan area with free legal, educational and community support services.
- This guide is one of the tangible ways we are looking to serve our community.
- It is only because God first loved us that we can share His love with others!
- “God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” Romans 5:8

DISCLAIMER

- This is a general guide to help you complete Form I-765 in order to obtain authorization to work in the U.S. It is not an exhaustive guide to everything you need to know about Form I-765.
- It is your responsibility to make sure that your Form I-765 is completed correctly in its entirety (with the required evidence) and filed in a timely manner.
- This guide is for informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. Following this guide does not guarantee approval of your Form I-765 by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”).
- For more information on how to complete the form, see the instructions on the following USCIS website: <https://www.uscis.gov/i-765>.
- This guide is based on the online form published by USCIS as of July 27, 2023, but this form may change or there may be updates to the form in the future.

WHAT IS FORM I-765?

- You must have permission to legally work in the United States, which depends on your immigration status.
- U.S. employers must verify that all employees are allowed to work in the country.
- TPS holders and parolees under the processes for Cubans, Haitians, Nicaraguans, and Venezuelans, may apply for work authorization by filing Form I-765 (Application for Employment Authorization).
- Important: This guide is not for any type of parolee but only for persons under the processes listed above where a supporter has petition for you to come from outside the U.S. o the country in a safe and orderly manner. Visit the USCIS website <https://www.uscis.gov/CHNV> for more information. In addition, this guide is only for persons who have already been granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and not for persons who are applying for TPS.
- If the application is approved, you will receive an Employment Authorization Document (EAD).
- The EAD may be presented to an employer as proof that you can legally work in the United States.

WHO CAN SUBMIT FORM I-765 ONLINE?

- Only certain categories of immigrants may file Form I-765. And certain categories of immigrants may file this form online.
- Temporary Protected Status holders and parolees under the processes for Cubans, Haitians, Nicaraguans, and Venezuelans may file Form I-765 online.
- There are other categories of immigrants who may apply but we will only be looking at those two categories in this guide.

File a Form

Select the form you want to file online. Once you start, we will automatically save your information for 30 days, or from the last time you worked on the form.

Fee waiver: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you cannot file online. You must file a paper version of both the Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver and the form for the specific benefit you are requesting. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/feewaiver.

Select the form you want to file online.

A screenshot of a web form's dropdown menu. The menu is open, showing a list of USCIS forms. The options are: "I-90, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card", "I-130, Petition for Alien Relative", "I-131, Application for Travel Document", "I-134A, Online Request to be a Supporter and Declaration of Financial Support", "I-539, Application To Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status", "I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal", and "I-765, Application for Employment Authorization". The "I-765" option is highlighted in light blue. A blue arrow points to the right from the "I-765" option.

- In the “File a Form” page, select “I-765, Application for Employment Authorization” from the drop-down menu.
- After selecting that option, continue through the next pages until you get to the actual application (click on the “Next” tabs).

FILING FEE

- Filing fee is $410
- Fee is non-refundable regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision.
- Online portal accepts credit cards and debit cards. Money orders or cash is not accepted for the online application.
- If USCIS subsequently notifies you that you must submit biometrics, you will receive a biometrics appointment notice with instructions on how to submit the additional biometrics fee.

WHAT TO EXPECT AFTER SUBMITTING

- After submitting your form, you should receive a receipt notice in your USCIS online account.
- A few weeks after filing, you should receive a physical copy of the receipt notice sent to the mailing address you provided on your Form I-765. Please verify that all information is correct on the notice and keep the document with your personal files.
- You can monitor your application online. USCIS recently announced the availability of the myProgress service for Form I-765 that allows you to view confirmation of completed steps and estimated wait times until the next step in your case processing is completed, including: (i) confirmation that the application was received; (ii) biometric services appointment was completed (if required); and (iii) the decision on a pending case.
- To view myProgress, log in to your USCIS online account, select the pending application and click on the myProgress tab.

POSSIBLE OUTCOMES

- (1) Approval: You will be able to start work once you have received your EAD card and the start date on the EAD card has arrived. Note the expiration date of the EAD because you will need to renew the EAD well in advance of the expiration date.
- (2) Biometric Services Appointment: USCIS may notify you at a later date that you must submit biometrics, and you will receive a biometric services appointment notice with instructions on the steps to follow.
- (3) Request for Evidence: USCIS may send you a Request for Evidence requesting clarification and/or additional documents to process the application.
- (4) Denial.
